8 Chapel Hill; and

9 Whereas, Fritz Mills operated successful businesses in peach farming, timber, 10 gravel production, and real estate; and

14 the improvement of the State; and

15 Whereas, Fritz Mills served with distinction in the North Carolina Senate in 16 1963 and 1965 and in the North Carolina House of Representatives in 1967 and 1969; 17 and

18 Whereas, Fritz Mills served as the Governor's liaison to the General 19 Assembly in 1971 and, reflecting his lifelong interest in education, was instrumental in

23 1971; and

9 Fritz Mills; and

21 Davis Mills; and his sons, Fred Moore Mills III and James Fetzer Mills; and

22 Whereas, the General Assembly wishes not only to honor the 23 accomplishments and memory of Fritz Mills, but also to express the sentiment that the 24 "The Building", as he called this place, is the less because of his absence;
