6 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

7 Section 1. G.S. 115C-391(d) reads as rewritten:

8 "(d) A local board of education may, upon recommendation of the principal and 9 superintendent, expel any student 14 years of age or older ~~who has been convicted of a~~ 10 ~~felony and~~ whose continued presence in school constitutes a clear threat to the safety and 11 health of other students or employees. At any time after the first July 1 that is at least six 12 months after the board's decision to expel a student under this subsection, a student may 13 request the local board of education to reconsider that decision. If the student 14 demonstrates to the satisfaction of the local board of education that the student's presence 15 in school no longer constitutes a threat to the safety and health of other students or 16 employees, the board shall re-admit the student to a school in that local school
17 administrative unit on a date the board considers appropriate. The decision of the board 18 on an expelled student's request to reconsider his expulsion is not appealable.

19 Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 115C-112, a local board of education has no duty

1 to continue to provide a child with special needs, expelled pursuant to this subsection,
2 with any special education or related services during the period of expulsion."

3 Sec. 2. The State Board of Education shall report to the 1995 General 4 Assembly and the Joint Legislative Education Oversight Committee no later than 5 February 15, 1996, on the implementation of this act, including the numbers of students 6 expelled under the act.

7 Sec. 3. This act becomes effective December 1, 1995, and applies to acts 8 committed on or after that date.
