A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO CREATE THE GOOD FUNDS SETTLEMENT ACT, THE DEFINITIONS UNDER THE REGISTRATION REQUIRE CERTAIN MAKERS OF MORTGAGES AND DEEDS RESIDENTIAL REAL PROPERTY. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:	EMENTS ACT FOR OF TRUST ON
Section 1. The General Statutes are amended by adding a r "CHAPTER 45A.	new Chapter to read:
"§ 45A-1. Short title. This Chapter shall be known as the Good Funds Settlement Act. "§ 45A-2. Applicability. This Chapter applies only to real estate transactions involving a	one- to four-family residential dwelling or a lot restricted to residential use.
"§ 45A-3. Definitions. As used in this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires: (1) 'Bank' means a financial institution, including by patienal bank, state abortered bank, savings bank, as

- (14) 'Settlement' means the time when the settlement agent has received the duly executed deed, deed of trust or mortgage, and other loan documents and funds required to carry out the terms of the contracts between the parties.
 - (15) 'Settlement agent' means the person or persons responsible for conducting the settlement and disbursement of the settlement proceeds, and includes any individual, corporation, partnership, or other entity conducting the settlement and disbursement of the closing funds.
 - (16) 'Teller's check' means a check provided to a customer of a bank or acquired from a bank for remittance purposes, that is drawn by the bank, and drawn on another bank or payable through or at a bank.

"§ 45A-4. Duty of settlement agent.

 The settlement agent shall cause recordation of the deed, if any, the deed of trust or mortgage, or other loan documents required to be recorded at settlement. The settlement agent shall not disburse any of the closing funds prior to the recordation of any deeds or loan documents required to be filed by the lender, if applicable, and verification that the closing funds used to fund disbursement are deposited in the settlement agent's trust or escrow account in one or more forms prescribed by this Chapter. Unless otherwise provided in this Chapter, a settlement agent shall not cause a disbursement of settlement proceeds unless those settlement proceeds are collected funds. Notwithstanding that a deposit made by a settlement agent to its trust or escrow account does not constitute collected funds, the settlement agent may cause a disbursement of settlement proceeds from its trust or escrow account in reliance on that deposit if the deposit is in one or more of the following forms:

- (1) A certified check;
- (2) A check issued by the State of North Carolina, the United States, or a political subdivision of the State of North Carolina or the United States;
- (3) A cashier's check, teller's check, or official bank check drawn on or issued by a financial institution insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or a comparable agency of the federal or state government;
- (4) A check drawn on the trust account of an attorney licensed to practice in the State of North Carolina;
- (5) A check or checks in an aggregate amount not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) per closing, which check or checks are drawn on the trust or escrow account of a real estate broker licensed under Chapter 93A of the General Statutes;
- A personal or commercial check or checks in an aggregate amount not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) per closing if the settlement agent making the deposit has reasonable and prudent grounds to believe that the deposit will be irrevocably credited to the settlement agent's trust or escrow account;

A check drawn on the account of or issued by a lender which is approved by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development as either a supervised or nonsupervised mortgagee as defined in 24 C.F.R. section 202.2.

"§ 45A-5. Duty of lender, purchaser, or seller.

The lender, purchaser, or seller shall, at or before closing, deliver closing funds, including the gross or net loan funds, if applicable, to the settlement agent either in the form of collected funds or in the form of a negotiable instrument described in G.S. 45A-4(1) through (7), provided that the lender, purchaser, or seller, as applicable, shall cause that negotiable instrument to be honored upon presentment for payment to the bank or other depository institution upon which the instrument is drawn. However, in the case of a refinancing, or any other loan where a right of rescission applies, the lender shall, no later than the business day after the expiration of the rescission period required under the federal Truth-in-Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1601, et seq., cause disbursement of loan funds to the settlement agent in one or more of the forms prescribed by provisions in this Chapter.

"§ 45A-6. Validity of loan documents.

Failure to comply with the provisions of this Chapter shall not govern the validity or enforceability of any document, including a deed or any loan document, executed and delivered at any settlement occurring after October 1, 1996.

"§ 45A-7. Penalty.

 Any party violating this Chapter is liable to any other party suffering a loss due to that violation for that other party's actual damages plus reasonable attorneys' fees. In addition, any party violating this Chapter shall pay to the party or parties suffering a loss an amount equal to one thousand dollars ($1,000) or double the amount of interest payable on any loan for the first 60 days after the loan closing, whichever amount is greater."

- Sec. 2. G.S. 53-234(6) reads as rewritten:
- "(6) 'Exempt person or organization' means:
 - (a) Any supervised or any nonsupervised institution, as these terms are defined in 24 C.F.R. section 202.2, approved by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, or any Any—lender authorized to engage in business as a bank, a farm credit system, life insurance company, savings institution, or credit union, or HUD approved mortgagee—under the laws of the United States or the State of North Carolina and subsidiaries and affiliates of such lenders, which subsidiaries and affiliates are subject to the general supervision or regulation of the lender or subject to audit or examination by a regulatory body or agency of the United States or the State of North Carolina; the entities listed in this sub-subdivision, and their officers and employees, are not subject to any of the provisions of this Article; or
