HOUSE BILL 1138*

Short Title: Property Tax Interest/Study. (Public)

Sponsors: Representatives Dickson; and Starnes.

April 21, 1997

Referred to: Finance, if favorable, Rules, Calendar and Operations of the House.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED 1 2 AN ACT TO ALLOW A TAXPAYER WHO PREVAILS IN A PROPERTY TAX APPEAL TO RECEIVE INTEREST ON ANY OVERPAYMENT OF TAX AND TO 3 AUTHORIZE THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH COMMISSION TO STUDY 4 5 VARIOUS PROPERTY TAX ISSUES. 6 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: 7 Section 1. G.S. 105-290(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read: Interest on Overpayments. - When an order of the Property Tax 8 "(4) Commission reduces the valuation of property or removes the property 9 from the tax lists and, based on the order, the taxpayer has paid more tax 10 than is due on the property, the taxpayer is entitled to receive interest on 11 the overpayment in accordance with this subdivision. An overpayment 12 of tax bears interest at an annual rate of nine percent (9%) from the date 13 the interest begins to accrue until a refund is paid. Interest accrues from 14 the later of the date the tax was paid and the date the tax would have 15 been considered delinquent under G.S. 105-360. A refund is considered 16 paid on a date determined by the governing body of the taxing unit that 17 is no sooner than five days after a refund check is mailed." 18 Section 2. The Legislative Research Commission may study the methods used 19 by counties to develop the schedules of value for a general reappraisal of real property 20 and the appeal process for appeals of the value or listing of property. The Commission 1 2 may assign these topics to a study committee established to study various tax issues or 3 may create a separate study committee to study these topics. In conducting the study, the 4 Commission may determine whether the procedures used in developing schedules of 5 value produce unrealistic values on nonresidential real property, whether representatives 6 of the Department of Revenue should be given more authority in resolving taxpayer appeals, and whether the Property Tax Commission should be replaced with a State Tax 7 8 Court. The Commission may make an interim report of its findings to the 1998 Regular 9 Session of the 1997 General Assembly and may make a final report to the 1999 General 10 Assembly.

Section 3. This act becomes effective July 1, 1997. Section 1 of this act applies to appeals made to the Property Tax Commission on or after the effective date of this act.
