1
2 AN ACT TO ESTABLISH A PROCEDURE TO RESOLVE THE ISSUE OF
3 CONFLICTING CHILD CUSTODY ORDERS; TO CLARIFY THE EFFECT OF 4 TERMINATING JURISDICTION IN CERTAIN JUVENILE CASES; TO GIVE
5 THE COURT AUTHORITY TO CONVERT A JUVENILE COURT CUSTODY
6 ORDER INTO A PERMANENT CUSTODY ORDER UNDER CHAPTER 50 OF 7 THE GENERAL STATUTES; AND TO MAKE TECHNICAL AND 8 CONFORMING CHANGES TO THE LAW.

9 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

10 SECTION 1. G.S. 7B-200 is amended by adding the following new 11 subsections to read:

12 "(c) When the court obtains jurisdiction over a juvenile as the result of a petition
13 alleging that the juvenile is abused, neglected, or dependent:

14 (1) Any other civil action in this State in which the custody of the juvenile 15 is an issue is automatically stayed as to that issue, unless the juvenile 16 proceeding and the civil custody action or claim are consolidated
17 pursuant to subsection (d) of this section or the judge in the juvenile 18 proceeding enters an order dissolving the stay.

19 (2) If an order entered in the juvenile proceeding and an order entered in 20 another civil custody action conflict, the order in the juvenile 21 proceeding controls as long as the court continues to exercise
22 jurisdiction in the juvenile proceeding.

23 (d) Notwithstanding G.S. 50-13.5(f), the judge assigned to a juvenile proceeding
24 may order that any civil action or claim for custody filed in the district be consolidated
25 with the juvenile proceeding. If a civil action or claim for custody of the juvenile is filed 26 in another district, the judge assigned to the juvenile proceeding, for good cause and 27 after consulting with the judge in the other district, may (i) order that the civil action or 28 claim for custody be transferred to the county in which the juvenile proceeding is filed;

1 (ii) order a change of venue in the juvenile proceeding and transfer the juvenile
2 proceeding to the district in which the civil action or claim is filed; (iii) proceed in the 3 juvenile proceeding while the civil action or claim remains stayed; or (iv) dissolve the 4 stay of the civil action or claim and stay the juvenile proceeding pending a resolution of 5 the civil action or claim."

6 SECTION 2. G.S. 7B-201 reads as rewritten:

7 "§ 7B-201. Retention and termination of jurisdiction.

8 (a) When the court obtains jurisdiction over a juvenile, jurisdiction shall continue 9 until terminated by order of the court or until the juvenile reaches the age of 18 years or 10 is otherwise emancipated, whichever occurs first.

11 (b) When the court's jurisdiction terminates, whether automatically or by 12 court-order, the court thereafter shall not modify or enforce any order previously
13 entered in the case, including any juvenile court order relating to the custody, 14 placement, or guardianship of the juvenile. The legal status of the juvenile and the 15 custodial rights of the parties shall revert to the status they were before the juvenile 16 petition was filed, unless applicable law or a valid court order in another civil action
17 provides otherwise. Termination of the court's jurisdiction in an abuse, neglect, or 18 dependency proceeding, however, shall not affect any of the following:

19 (1) A civil custody order entered pursuant to G.S. 7B-911.

20 (2) A final order terminating parental rights.

21 (3) A pending action to terminate parental rights, unless the court orders

35 information required by G.S. 50A-209.

44 of the court with or without bond and shall file only such reports as the court shall

1 require. The guardian shall have the care, custody, and control of the juvenile or may 2 arrange a suitable placement for the juvenile and may represent the juvenile in legal
3 actions before any court. The guardian may consent to certain actions on the part of the 4 juvenile in place of the parent including (i) marriage, (ii) enlisting in the armed forces,

10 until the guardianship is terminated, unless the court's jurisdiction terminates earlier as a 11 matter of law."

12 SECTION 5. Article 9 of Chapter 7B of the General Statutes is amended by 13 adding a new section to read:

14 "§ 7B-911. Civil child-custody order.

15 (a) After making proper findings at a dispositional hearing or any subsequent 16 hearing, the court on its own motion or the motion of a party may award custody of the 17 juvenile to a parent or other appropriate person pursuant to G.S. 50-13.1, 50-13.2, 50-18 13.5, and 50-13.7, as provided herein, and terminate the court's jurisdiction in the 19 juvenile proceeding.

20 (b) When the juvenile court enters a custody order under this section, the court
21 shall either cause the order to be filed in an existing civil action relating to the custody
22 of the juvenile or, if there is no other civil action, instruct the clerk to treat the order as 23 the initiation of a civil action for custody.

24 If the order is filed in an existing civil action and the person to whom the court is 25 awarding custody is not a party to that action, the court shall order that the person be 26 joined as a party and that the caption of the case be changed accordingly. The order 27 shall resolve any pending claim for custody and shall constitute a modification of any 28 custody order previously entered in the action.

29 If the court's order initiates a civil action, the court shall designate the parties to the 30 action and determine the most appropriate caption for the case. The court may order one 31 or more of the parties to pay the filing fee for a civil action into the office of the clerk of 32 superior court. The order shall constitute a custody determination, and any motion to 33 enforce or modify the custody order shall be filed in the newly created civil action in 34 accordance with the provisions of Chapter 50 of the General Statutes. The 35 Administrative Office of the Courts may adopt rules and shall develop and make 36 available appropriate forms for establishing a civil file to implement this section.

37 (c) The court may enter a civil custody order under this section and terminate the 38 court's jurisdiction in the juvenile proceeding only if :

- 39 (1) In the civil custody order the court makes findings and conclusions
40 that support the entry of a custody order in an action under Chapter 50
41 of the General Statutes or, if the juvenile is already the subject of a 42 custody order entered pursuant to Chapter 50, makes findings and 43 conclusions that support modification of that order pursuant to G.S.
44 50-13.7; and

1           (2) In a separate order terminating the juvenile court's jurisdiction in the 2           juvenile proceeding, the court finds:

3           a. That the juvenile's status and the issues in the case are in the 4           nature of a private custody agreement or dispute and that there
5           is not a need for continued State intervention on behalf of the 6           juvenile through a juvenile court proceeding; and

7           b. That at least six months have passed since the court made a 8           determination that the juvenile's placement with the person to 9           whom the court is awarding custody is the permanent plan for 10          the juvenile, though this finding is not required if the court is 11          awarding custody to a parent or to a person with whom the 12          child was living when the juvenile petition was filed."

13           SECTION 6. G.S. 50-13.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

14           "(i) If the child whose custody is the subject of an action under this Chapter also 15           is the subject of a juvenile abuse, neglect, or dependency proceeding pursuant to 16           Subchapter 1 of Chapter 7B of the General Statutes, then the custody action under this 17           Chapter is stayed as provided in G.S. 7B-200."

18           SECTION 7. This act becomes effective October 1, 2003, and applies to 19           petitions and actions filed on or after that date.
