SECTION 7. The Joint Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee shall study the following issues related to special registration plates:

- (1) The number of special registration plates that have not received the minimum number of applications in the three years since their authorization and whether to repeal the authority for these plates.
- (2) The registration plate background and other alternative methods of identifying North Carolina vehicles.
- (3) The fees imposed for special plates and the distribution of those fees. The Committee may ask the Division of Motor Vehicles to study the impact of any fee increase on the number of special registration plates issued. The Committee may also require the organizations that receive money from special registration plates to provide a report on the amount of money received by the organization from the sale of its special registration plate and how the organization spends the money it receives from the sale of this plate.

The Committee may report its findings and any recommended legislation to the 2004 Regular Session of the 2003 General Assembly or the 2005 Regular Session of the 2005 General Assembly.

SECTION 8. Sections 7 and 8 of this act are effective when they become law. The remainder of this act becomes effective January 1, 2004.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified this the 20th day of July, 2003.
