8 SECTION 1. G.S. 93A-4(b) reads as rewritten:

9 "(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, any person who submits an 10 application to the Commission in proper manner for a license as real estate broker or a 11 license as real estate salesperson shall be required to take an ~~oral or written~~
12 examination. ~~The Commission may allow an applicant to elect to take the examination~~ 13 ~~by computer as an alternative to the written or oral examination and may be~~ 14 administered orally, by computer, or by any other method the Commission deems 15 appropriate. The Commission may require the applicant to pay the Commission or a 16 provider contracted by the Commission the actual cost of administering the 17 computerized examination, the examination and its administration. The cost of the 18 ~~computerized~~ examination and its administration shall be in addition to any other fees
19 the applicant is required to pay under subsection (a) of this section. The examination
20 shall determine the applicant's qualifications with due regard to the paramount interests
21 of the public as to the applicant's competency. A person holding a real estate 22 salesperson license in this State and applying for a real estate broker license shall not be 23 required to take an additional examination under this subsection. A person who fails the 24 license examination shall be entitled to know the result and score. A person who passes
25 the exam shall be notified only that the person passed the examination. Whether a 26 person passed or failed the examination shall be a matter of public record; however, the

1 scores for license examinations shall not be considered public records. Nothing in this 2 subsection shall limit the rights granted to any person under G.S. 93B-8.

3 An applicant for licensure under this Chapter shall satisfy the Commission that he or 4 she possesses the competency, honesty, truthfulness, integrity, and general moral 5 character necessary to protect the public interest and promote public confidence in the 6 real estate brokerage business. The Commission may investigate the moral character of 7 each applicant for licensure and require an applicant to provide the Commission with a 8 criminal record report. All applicants shall obtain criminal record reports from one or 9 more reporting services designated by the Commission to provide criminal record 10 reports. Applicants are required to pay the designated reporting service for the cost of 11 these reports. If the results of any required competency examination and investigation of 12 the applicant's moral character shall be satisfactory to the Commission, then the 13 Commission shall issue to the applicant a license, authorizing the applicant to act as a 14 real estate broker or real estate salesperson in the State of North Carolina, upon the 15 payment of privilege taxes now required by law or that may hereafter be required by 16 law."

17 SECTION 2. G.S. 93A-4A(a) reads as rewritten:

18 "(a) The Commission shall establish a program of continuing education for real 19 estate brokers and salespersons. ~~A person licensed as a real estate broker or salesperson~~
20 ~~must present evidence to the Commission upon the second license renewal following~~ 21 ~~initial licensure, and every renewal thereafter, that during the 12 months preceding the~~ 22 ~~annual license expiration date the person has completed eight classroom hours of real~~
23 ~~estate instruction in courses approved by the Commission.~~An individual licensed as a 24 real estate broker or salesperson is required to complete continuing education
25 requirements in an amount not to exceed eight classroom hours of instruction a year
26 during any license renewal period in subjects and at times the Commission deems 27 appropriate. Any licensee who fails to complete continuing education requirements 28 pursuant to this section shall not actively engage in the real estate brokerage business."

29 SECTION 3. G.S.93A-9 reads as rewritten:

30 "§ 93A-9. Licensing nonresidents.

31 (a) An applicant from another state, which offers licensing privileges to residents
32 of North Carolina, may be licensed by conforming to all the provisions of this Chapter 33 and, in the discretion of the Commission, such other terms and conditions as are 34 required of North Carolina residents applying for license in such other state; provided
35 that the Commission may exempt from the examination prescribed in G.S. 93A-4 a 36 broker or salesperson duly licensed in another state if a similar exemption is extended to 37 licensed brokers and salespersons from North Carolina.

38 (b) The Commission may issue a limited broker's or salesperson's license to a 39 person or an entity from another state or territory of the United States without regard to 40 whether that state or territory offers similar licensing privileges to residents in North 41 Carolina if the person or entity satisfies all of the following:

43 salesperson in good standing in another state or territory of the United

9 subsection shall expire on June 30 of each year following issuance or on a date that the 10 Commission deems appropriate unless the license is renewed pursuant to the 11 requirements of G.S. 93A-4. A person or entity licensed under this subsection may be 12 disciplined by the Commission for violations of this Chapter as provided in G.S. 93A-6
13 and G.S. 93A-54.

14 Any person or entity licensed under this subsection shall be affiliated with a resident 15 North Carolina real estate broker or salesperson, and the resident North Carolina real 16 estate broker or salesperson shall actively and personally supervise the licensee in a 17 manner that reasonably assures that the licensee complies with the requirements of this 18 Chapter and rules adopted by the Commission. The Commission may exempt applicants 19 for licensure under this subsection from examination and the other licensing
20 requirements under G.S. 93A-4. The Commission may adopt rules as it deems necessary 21 to give effect to this subsection, including rules establishing: (i) qualifications for 22 licensure; (ii) licensure and renewal procedures; (iii) requirements for continuing 23 education; (iv) conduct of persons and entities licensed under this subsection and their 24 affiliated resident real estate brokers or salespersons; (v) a definition of commercial real 25 estate; and (vi) any requirements or limitations on affiliation between resident real estate 26 brokers or salespersons and persons or entities seeking licensure under this subsection."

27 SECTION 4. G.S. 93A-10 reads as rewritten:

38 be ~~authenticated by its seal.~~ executed by an officer of the corporation. The signature of 39 the officer on the consent to service instrument shall be sufficient to bind the
