1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT TO ESTABLISH THE APPOINTMENT OF PARENTING
3 COORDINATORS IN DOMESTIC CHILD CUSTODY ACTIONS.

4 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

5 SECTION 1. Chapter 50 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a
6 new Article to read:

7 "Article 5.

8 "Parenting Coordinator.

9 "§ 50-90. Definitions.

10 As used in this Article, the following terms mean:

11 (1) High-conflict case. – An action brought under Article 1 of this Chapter 12 where minor children are involved and the parties demonstrate an 13 ongoing pattern of any of the following:

14 a. Litigation.

15 b. Anger and distrust.

16 c. Verbal abuse.

17 d. Physical aggression or threats of physical aggression.

18 e. Difficulty in communicating about and cooperating in the care
19 of their children.

20 f. Conditions that in the discretion of the court warrant the 21 appointment of a parenting coordinator.

22 (2) Parenting coordinator. – An impartial person qualified under this 23 Article appointed by the court to assist parties in resolving issues and 24 deciding disputed issues relating to parenting and other family issues
25 in actions brought under Article 1 of this Chapter where a minor child
26 is involved.

27 "§ 50-91. Appointment of parenting coordinators.

28 (a) In any action brought under Article 1 of this Chapter where minor children
29 are involved, the court may, upon its own motion, or by motion or agreement of the

1 parties, appoint a parenting coordinator to assist the parties in resolving issues and
2 decide disputed issues related to parenting and other family issues in the case as set
3 forth in this Article. A parenting coordinator may not be appointed under this subsection
4 if any party objects.

5 (b) The court may appoint a parenting coordinator upon the entry of a custody
6 order or parenting agreement.

7 (c) If the court determines that a parenting coordinator should be appointed, or if
8 the parties agree without motion to the appointment of a parenting coordinator, the court 9 shall:

10 (1) Complete a referral form listing contact information for the parties and 11 their attorneys, if any, and the issues warranting the appointment of a
12 parenting coordinator. The form shall be provided to any proposed
13 parenting coordinator prior to his or her appointment.

14 (2) Appoint a parenting coordinator at which appointment the parties and 15 their attorneys, and the proposed parenting coordinator if possible,
16 shall be present.

17 "§ 50-92. Role of parenting coordinator.

18 (a) The parenting coordinator shall:

19 (1) Assist parents in implementing custody and visitation court orders on 20 an ongoing basis.

21 (2) Reduce conflict between parents.

22 (3) Facilitate both parents' relationships with the children.

23 (4) Provide attorneys and any unrepresented party with written summaries
24 of developments in the case.

25 (5) Act to resolve any issues in the implementation of the parenting plan
26 not specifically governed by the court order over which the parents
27 reach an impasse, until further orders are entered.

28 (6) Empower the parents to successfully resolve conflicts over their 29 children on their own.

30 (b) The parenting coordinator shall not serve or act in any professional capacity
31 for either or both parents or children.

32 (c) The parenting coordinator shall not deal directly with financial issues and 33 shall refer financial issues to the attorneys.

34 (d) The appointment of a parenting coordinator shall not divest the court of its 35 exclusive jurisdiction to determine fundamental issues of custody, visitation, and 36 support, and the authority to exercise management and control of the case.

37 "§ 50-93. Qualifications.

38 A parenting coordinator shall be chosen by the court from a list maintained by the 39 district court. To be included on the list, a parenting coordinator must provide 40 documentation as evidence that the person meets the following criteria:

41 (1) Education. – Masters or doctorate in psychology, law, social work,
42 counseling, medicine, or related degrees and relevant training or
43 experience.

44 (2) Training and experience. –

- 1           a.     No less than five years of related professional postdegree
2           experience.
- 3           b.     Participation in 24 hours of training in topics of developmental 4           stages of children, dynamics of high conflict families, stages
5           and effects of divorce, problem solving techniques, mediation,
6           and legal issues.
- 7           c.     Participation in parenting coordinators seminars which will 8           provide continuing education, group discussion, and peer
9           review and support on a monthly basis.
- 10          (3)    Licensing. – Current license in the parenting coordinator's area of 11          practice, if applicable.

12    "§ 50-94. Appointment conference.

13          At the time of the appointment of the parenting coordinator, the court shall do the 14    following:

- 15          (1)    Explain the parenting coordinator's role, authority, and responsibilities.
- 16          (2)    Determine who will provide what information to the parenting 17          coordinator.
- 18          (3)    Determine financial arrangements for the parenting coordinator's fee to 19          be paid by each party and authorize the parenting coordinator to charge
20          any party separately for individual contacts made necessary by that 21          party's behavior.
- 22          (4)    Inform the participants of the rules regarding communication among 23          them and with the court.
- 24          (5)    Enter the appointment order.

25          The parenting coordinator and any guardians ad litem shall bring to the appointment
26    conference all necessary releases, contracts, and consents, which shall be signed by the 27    parties. The parenting coordinator shall also schedule the first sessions with the parties.

28    "§ 50-95. Fees.

29          (a)    The parenting coordinator shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for 30    services rendered and to a reasonable retainer. The parenting coordinator may request a
31    hearing in the event of a fee dispute.

32          (b)    The court may make the appointment of a parenting coordinator contingent
33    upon the parties' payment of a specific fee to the parenting coordinator. The parenting
34    coordinator shall not begin the parenting coordinator's duties until the fee has been paid.

35    "§ 50-96. Meetings and communications.

36          Meetings between the parenting coordinator and the parties need not follow any 37    specific procedures and the meetings may be informal and ex parte. All communications 38    between the parties and the parenting coordinator shall not be confidential. The 39    parenting coordinator and the court shall not engage in any ex parte communication.

40    "§ 50-97. Actions by parenting coordinator.

41          Should the parenting coordinator act to resolve any disagreement between the 42    parents, the parenting coordinator's decision shall prevail until the matter is reviewed by 43    the court upon motion. The parenting coordinator, any party or the attorney for any 44    party may request a hearing, file a motion, and schedule a hearing on an expedited basis.

1 A parenting coordinator may be subpoenaed to appear and testify only by the judge
2 presiding over the case.

3 "§ 50-98. Reports.

4 (a) The parenting coordinator shall promptly notify the court, parties, and 5 attorneys for the parties in writing in any of the following events:

6 (1) The parenting coordinator determines that the existing custody order is 7 not in the best interests of the child.

8 (2) The parenting coordinator determines that there exist issues in the case
9 which the parenting coordinator is not qualified to address or resolve.

10 (b) Upon receipt of notice from the parenting coordinator under this section, the 11 court shall promptly schedule the matter for review no later than two weeks following
12 receipt of the report, and the parenting coordinator shall remain involved in the case
13 until the review hearing.

14 (c) If the parties agree to any fundamental change in the order, the parenting
15 coordinator shall send the agreement to the parties' attorneys for preparation of a 16 consent order.

17 "§ 50-99. Parenting coordinator records.

18 (a) The parenting coordinator shall provide the attorneys and the parties with any 19 written summaries of developments in the case following every meeting with the 20 parents. Copies of any written communication with the parent coordinator shall be sent 21 to attorneys for the parties and any unrepresented parties.

22 (b) The parenting coordinator shall maintain records of each meeting. These 23 records may only be subpoenaed by order of the judge presiding over the case. These 24 records shall be subject to an in camera inspection by the court and shall be released to 25 the parties and their attorneys only if the court determines that the information
26 contained in the records will assist the parties with the presentation of their case at trial.

27 "§ 50-100. Modification or termination of parenting coordinator appointment.

28 The court may terminate or modify the parenting coordinator appointment for good 29 cause upon motion of either party at the request of the parenting coordinator, upon the 30 agreement of the parties and the parenting coordinator, or by the court on its own
31 motion. Good cause includes any of the following:

32 (1) Lack of reasonable progress over a significant period of time despite 33 the best efforts of the parties and/or the parenting coordinator.

34 (2) Determination that the parties no longer need the assistance of a
35 parenting coordinator.

36 (3) Impairment on the part of a party that significantly interferes with 37 participating in the process.

38 (4) The parenting coordinator is unable or unwilling to continue to serve.

39 "§ 50-101. Parenting coordinator immunity.

40 A parenting coordinator shall not be liable for damages arising from acts or 41 omissions of ordinary negligence arising in connection with that person's duties and 42 responsibilities as a parenting coordinator. The immunity provided in this section does 43 not apply if it is determined that the personal injury, wrongful death, property damage,
44 or other loss arose out of the operation of a motor vehicle."
