5 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

6 SECTION 1. G.S. 14-167 reads as rewritten:

7 "§ 14-167. Failure to return hired property.

8 Any person who shall rent or hire, any horse, mule or other like animal, or any 9 buggy, wagon, truck, automobile, or other vehicle, aircraft, motor, trailer, appliance,
10 equipment, tool, or other thing of value, and who shall willfully fail to return the same 11 to the possession of the person, firm or corporation from whom such property has been 12 rented or hired at the expiration of the time for which such property has been rented or 13 hired, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor.

14 If the value of the truck, automobile, or other motor vehicle that is not returned is in 15 excess of four thousand dollars ($4,000), the person who rented or hired it and failed to 16 return it shall be guilty of a Class H felony."

17 SECTION 2. G.S. 14-168.3 reads as rewritten:

18 "§ 14-168.3. Prima facie evidence of intent to convert property.

19 It shall be prima facie evidence of intent to commit a crime as set forth in 20 G.S. 14-167, 14-168, and 14-168.1 with respect to any property other than a truck, 21 automobile, or other motor vehicle when one who has, by written instrument, leased or 22 rented the personal property of another:

- 23 (1) Failed or refused to return such property to its owner after the lease,
24 bailment, or rental agreement has expired,
25 a. Within 10 days, and 26 b. Within 48 hours after written demand for return thereof is 27 personally served or given by registered mail delivered to the 28 last known address provided in such lease or rental agreement, 29 or

- 1 (2) When the leasing or rental of such personal property is obtained by 2 presentation of identification to the lessor or rentor thereof which is 3 false, fictitious, or knowingly not current as to name, address, place of 4 employment, or other identification."

5 SECTION 3. Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a
6 new section to read:

7 "§ 14-168.5. Prima facie evidence of intent to convert a truck, automobile, or other 8 motor vehicle; demand for return or payment.

9 (a) Prima Facie Evidence. – It shall be prima facie evidence of intent to commit a 10 crime as set forth in G.S. 14-167, 14-168, and 14-168.1 when one who has, by written 11 instrument, leased or rented a truck, automobile, or other motor vehicle owned by 12 another:

- 13 (1) Failed or refused to return the vehicle to the lessor or rentor at the 14 place specified after the lease, bailment, or rental agreement has 15 expired, within 72 hours after written demand for the vehicle is made 16 in accordance with subsection (b) of this section; or 17 (2) When the leasing or rental of the vehicle is obtained by presentation of 18 identification to the lessor or rentor of the vehicle which is false, 19 fictitious, or knowingly not current as to name, address, place of 20 employment, or other identification.

21 (b) Method of Demand; When Effective. –

- 22 (1) Demand for return of a leased or rented truck, automobile, or other 23 motor vehicle may be made in one of three ways:
24 a. By personal service in accordance with Rule 4(j) of the North
25 Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.
26 b. By certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the last 27 known address provided in the lease, bailment, or rental
28 agreement.
29 c. By depositing the demand with a designated delivery service 30 authorized pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 7502(f)(2) addressed to the 31 last known address provided in the lease, bailment, or rental
32 agreement.
33 (2) Demand is effective upon hand delivery to the last known address, 34 three days after deposit by mail (even if the demand is returned as 35 undeliverable), or upon delivery by a designated delivery service to the 36 last known address."

37 SECTION 4. G.S. 20-102 reads as rewritten:

38 "§ 20-102. Report of stolen and recovered motor vehicles.

39 Every sheriff, chief of police, or peace officer upon receiving reliable information
40 that any vehicle registered hereunder has been stolen shall ~~immediately~~ report such theft
41 to the Division. Any said officer upon receiving information that any vehicle, which he 42 has previously reported as stolen, has been recovered, shall ~~immediately~~ report the fact 43 of such recovery to the Division."

1 SECTION 5. Chapter 20 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a
2 new section to read:

3 "§ 20-102.2. Report of failure to return hired motor vehicles.

4 Every sheriff, chief of police, or peace officer, upon receiving a vehicle theft report,
5 warrant, or other reliable information that any rental, for-hire, or leased vehicle
6 registered pursuant to this Chapter has not been returned as set forth in G.S. 14-167,
7 shall report the failure to the National Crime Information Center. Any officer upon 8 receiving information concerning the recovery of a vehicle that the officer previously
9 reported as not having been returned shall report the recovery to the National Crime 10 Information Center. The officer shall also attempt to notify the reporting party of the 11 location and condition of the recovered vehicle by telephone, if the telephone number of 12 the reporting party is available or readily accessible."

13 SECTION 6. This act becomes effective December 1, 2005, and applies to 14 offenses committed on or after that date.
