5 first."

6 SECTION 5. Section 2(1) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution
7 reads as rewritten:

8 "(1) Election and term. The Governor and Lieutenant Governor shall be elected by 9 the qualified voters of the State in ~~1972-2004~~ and every four years thereafter, ~~at the~~ 10 ~~same time and places as members of the General Assembly are elected~~ at the places and 11 on the day prescribed by law. Their term of office shall be four years and shall 12 commence on the first day of January next after their election and continue until their 13 successors are elected and qualified."

14 SECTION 6. Section 7 of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution
15 reads as rewritten:

16 "Sec. 7. Other elective officers.

17 (1) Officers. A Secretary of State, an Auditor, a Treasurer, a Superintendent of 18 Public Instruction, an Attorney General, a Commissioner of Agriculture, a 19 Commissioner of Labor, and a Commissioner of Insurance shall be elected by the 20 qualified voters of the State in ~~1972-2004~~ and every four years thereafter, at the same 21 time and places as ~~members of the General Assembly are~~ the Governor is elected. Their 22 term of office shall be four years and shall commence on the first day of January next 23 after their election and continue until their successors are elected and qualified.

24 (2) Duties. Their respective duties shall be prescribed by law.

25 (3) Vacancies. If the office of any of these officers is vacated by death,
26 resignation, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Governor to appoint another to serve 27 until his successor is elected and qualified. Every such vacancy shall be filled by 28 election at the first election for members of the General Assembly or Governor, 29 whichever comes first, that occurs more than 60 days after the vacancy has taken place,
30 and the person chosen shall hold the office for the remainder of the unexpired term
31 fixed in this Section. When a vacancy occurs in the office of any of the officers named 32 in this Section and the term expires on the first day of January succeeding the next 33 election for members of the General Assembly, the Governor shall appoint to fill the 34 vacancy for the unexpired term of the office.

35 (4) Interim officers. Upon the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of any one of 36 these officers for any of the causes stated in the preceding paragraph, the Governor may 37 appoint an interim officer to perform the duties of that office until a person is appointed 38 or elected pursuant to this Section to fill the vacancy and is qualified.

39 (5) Acting officers. During the physical or mental incapacity of any one of these 40 officers to perform the duties of his office, as determined pursuant to this Section, the 41 duties of his office shall be performed by an acting officer who shall be appointed by 42 the Governor.

43 (6) Determination of incapacity. The General Assembly shall by law prescribe 44 with respect to those officers, other than the Governor, whose offices are created by this

1 Article, procedures for determining the physical or mental incapacity of any officer to 2 perform the duties of his office, and for determining whether an officer who has been 3 temporarily incapacitated has sufficiently recovered his physical or mental capacity to 4 perform the duties of his office. Removal of those officers from office for any other 5 cause shall be by impeachment.

6 (7) Special qualifications for Attorney General. Only persons duly authorized to 7 practice law in the courts of this State shall be eligible for appointment or election as 8 Attorney General."

9 SECTION 7. Section 9(3) of Article V of the North Carolina Constitution
10 reads as rewritten:

11 "(3) Clerks. A Clerk of the Superior Court for each county shall be elected for a 12 term of four years by the qualified voters thereof, at the same time and places as 13 members of the General Assembly or the Governor are elected. If the office of Clerk of 14 the Superior Court becomes vacant otherwise than by the expiration of the term, or if 15 the people fail to elect, the senior regular resident Judge of the Superior Court serving 16 the county shall appoint to fill the vacancy until an election can be regularly held."

17 SECTION 8. Section 18(1) of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution
18 reads as rewritten:

19 "(1) District Attorneys. The General Assembly shall, from time to time, divide the 20 State into a convenient number of prosecutorial districts, for each of which a District 21 Attorney shall be chosen for a term of four years by the qualified voters thereof, at the 22 same time and places as members of the General Assembly or the Governor are elected.
23 Only persons duly authorized to practice law in the courts of this State shall be eligible 24 for election or appointment as a District Attorney. The District Attorney shall advise the 25 officers of justice in his district, be responsible for the prosecution on behalf of the State
26 of all criminal actions in the Superior Courts of his district, perform such duties related 27 to appeals therefrom as the Attorney General may require, and perform such other 28 duties as the General Assembly may prescribe."

29 SECTION 9. Section 19 of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution
30 reads as rewritten:

31 "Sec. 19. Vacancies.

32 Unless otherwise provided in this Article, all vacancies occurring in the offices 33 provided for by this Article shall be filled by appointment of the Governor, and the 34 appointees shall hold their places until the next election for members of the General 35 Assembly or Governor, whichever comes first, that is held more than 60 days after the 36 vacancy occurs, when elections shall be held to fill the offices. When the unexpired
37 term of any of the offices named in this Article of the Constitution in which a vacancy
38 has occurred, and in which it is herein provided that the Governor shall fill the vacancy, 39 expires on the first day of January succeeding the next election for members of the 40 General Assembly or Governor, whichever comes first, the Governor shall appoint to 41 fill that vacancy for the unexpired term of the office. If any person elected or appointed 42 to any of these offices shall fail to qualify, the office shall be appointed to, held and 43 filled as provided in case of vacancies occurring therein. All incumbents of these offices 44 shall hold until their successors are qualified."
