Referred to: Pursuant to Rule 32(a) placed on today's calendar.

March 3, 2005

1 A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE FOUNDERS OF THE CIAA
2 BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT WHILE OBSERVING THE TOURNAMENT'S
3 SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY.

4 Whereas, the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA), established 5 in 1912, is the oldest African-American athletic conference in the nation; and

6 Whereas, the CIAA is currently composed of 12 historically black colleges
7 and universities, including Bowie State University, Elizabeth City State University,
8 Fayetteville State University, Johnson C. Smith University, Livingstone College, North
9 Carolina Central University, St. Augustine's College, St. Paul's College, Shaw
10 University, Virginia State University, Virginia Union University, and Winston-Salem
11 State University; and

12 Whereas, one of the CIAA's most popular athletic competitions is the 13 conference's annual basketball tournament, which began in 1946; and 14 Whereas, the CIAA basketball tournament has grown from 3,000 fans in its 15 first year of competition to more than 104,000 fans in 2004; and

16 Whereas, in 2004, the tournament had an economic impact of over 11.5
17 million dollars for the host city of Raleigh and generated more than $787,000 in general 18 scholarships for member institutions; and

19 Whereas, during the tournament, fans from across the nation gather for a 20 weeklong competition of basketball and other social events and participate in such 21 activities as college recruitment, health screenings, and job fairs; and

22 Whereas, on the 60th anniversary of the tournament, it is only fitting to pay
23 tribute to the founders of the tournament, Coaches John B. McLendon, Jr., Talmadge 24 Hall, John Burr, and Harry Jefferson; and

25 Whereas, the late John B. McLendon, Jr., often referred to as "Mr.
26 Basketball," served as Coach of the North Carolina Central University's men's

1 basketball team from 1937 to 1952 and was instrumental in the team winning the first 2 CIAA basketball championship; Now, therefore,

3 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

4 SECTION 1. The General Assembly honors John B. McLendon, Jr., 5 Talmadge Hall, John Burr, and Harry Jefferson for their role in establishing the CIAA 6 basketball tournament.

7 SECTION 2. The General Assembly congratulates the CIAA member 8 institutions on 60 years of outstanding basketball competition.

9 SECTION 3. The Secretary of State shall transmit a certified copy of this 10 resolution to the Commissioner of the CIAA.

11 SECTION 4. This resolution is effective upon ratification.
