39       SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 120-70.106 reads as rewritten:

40 "§ 120-70.106. Purpose and powersPurpose, powers, and duties of Committee.

41       (a) The Revenue Laws Study Committee may:

42           (1) Study the revenue laws of North Carolina and the administration of 43 those laws.

- 1           (2)    Review the State's revenue laws to determine which laws need 2                   clarification, technical amendment, repeal, or other change to make the 3                   laws concise, intelligible, easy to administer, and equitable.
4           (3)    Call upon the Department of Revenue to cooperate with it in the study
5                   of the revenue laws.
6           (4)    Report to the General Assembly at the beginning of each regular 7                   session concerning its determinations of needed changes in the State's 8                   revenue laws.

9           These powers, which are enumerated by way of illustration, shall be liberally
10           construed to provide for the maximum review by the Committee of all revenue law
11           matters in this State.

12           (b)    The Committee may make interim reports to the General Assembly on 13           matters for which it may report to a regular session of the General Assembly. A report
14           to the General Assembly may contain any legislation needed to implement a 15           recommendation of the Committee. When a recommendation of the Committee, if 16           enacted, would result in an increase or decrease in State revenues, the report of the 17           Committee must include an estimate of the amount of the increase or decrease.

18           (c)    The Committee shall conduct a comprehensive review of each tax 19           expenditure at least once every five years to determine if the tax expenditure is an 20           equitable and efficient means of achieving a State public policy objective and shall 21           report to the General Assembly on the findings of this review. For the purpose of this 22           subsection, the term 'tax expenditure' has the same meaning as in G.S. 105-256. The 23           Committee may stagger the reviews so that not all tax expenditures have to be 24           reevaluated in the same year."

25           SECTION 2.(b) The first reviews required under G.S. 120-70.106(c), as 26           enacted by this section, shall be reported to the 2007 General Assembly.

27           SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.
