A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO APPROPRIATE FUNDS FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF AGRICULTURAL EDUCATION CURRICULA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. In support of Chapter 709 of Public Law 105-225 (formerly P.L. 81-740), enacted by the 105th Congress, which granted a federal charter to the Future Farmers of America (FFA), effective July 1, 2007, all agricultural education curricula that are included in the standard course of study must be developed under the sole control of the Agricultural Education Program in the Department of Agricultural and Extension Education at North Carolina State University and must include as at least one-third of its total core content the FFA student youth organization and the SAE (Supervised Agricultural Experience) experiential learning program.

SECTION 2. There is appropriated from the General Fund to the Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) for the 2007-2008 fiscal year to implement this act.

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective July 1, 2007.
