Short Title: Magistrate Appointment Changes.

(Public)

Sponsors: Senator Kinnaird.

Referred to:

1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT TO AMEND THE PROVISIONS FOR APPOINTMENT OF MAGISTRATES, AS 3 RECOMMENDED BY THE CONFERENCE OF CHIEF DISTRICT COURT JUDGES.

4 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

5 SECTION 1. Section 10 of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution reads as 6 rewritten:

7 "Sec. 10. District Courts.

8 The General Assembly shall, from time to time, divide the State into a convenient number 9 of local court districts and shall prescribe where the District Courts shall sit, but a District
10 Court must sit in at least one place in each county. District Judges shall be elected for each 11 district for a term of four years, in a manner prescribed by law. When more than one District 12 Judge is authorized and elected for a district, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall 13 designate one of the judges as Chief District Judge. Every District Judge shall reside in the 14 district for which he is elected. For each county, the ~~senior regular resident Judge of the~~ 15 ~~Superior Court~~ Chief District Judge serving the county shall appoint from nominations 16 submitted by the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county, one or more Magistrates who shall 17 be officers of the District Court. Court, but if the Chief District Judge does not make the 18 appointments within 60 days of the submission of nominations by the Clerk, the senior regular 19 resident Judge of the Superior Court shall make the appointments without regard to the 20 nominations made by the Clerk. The Chief District Judge may reappoint a magistrate with six 21 or more years of experience regardless of the nominations made by the Clerk. The initial term 22 of appointment for a magistrate shall be for two years and subsequent terms shall be for four 23 years. The number of District Judges and Magistrates shall, from time to time, be determined 24 by the General Assembly. Vacancies in the office of District Judge shall be filled for the 25 unexpired term in a manner prescribed by law. Vacancies in the office of Magistrate shall be 26 filled for the unexpired term in the manner provided for original appointment to the office, 27 unless otherwise provided by the General Assembly."

28 SECTION 2. The amendment set out in Section 1 of this act shall be submitted to 29 the qualified voters of the State at the general election in November 2010, which election shall 30 be conducted under the laws then governing elections in the State. Ballots, voting systems, or 31 both may be used in accordance with Chapter 163 of the General Statutes. The question to be 32 used in the voting systems and ballots shall be:

33 "[] FOR [] AGAINST

34 Constitutional amendment to provide for appointment of magistrates by the chief 35 district court judge from nominations submitted by the clerk of superior court."

1 SECTION 3. If a majority of the votes cast on the question are in favor of the 2 amendment set out in Section 1 of this act, the State Board of Elections shall certify the 3 amendment to the Secretary of State, who shall enroll the amendment so certified among the 4 permanent records of that office. The amendment becomes effective January 1, 2011.

5 SECTION 4. G.S. 7A-171(b) reads as rewritten:

6 "(b) Not earlier than the Tuesday after the first Monday nor later than the third Monday 7 in December of each even-numbered year, the clerk of the superior court shall submit to the 8 ~~senior regular resident superior court judge of the district or set of districts as defined in~~ 9 ~~G.S. 7A-41.1(a) chief district court judge for the district~~ in which the clerk's county is located 10 the names of ~~two~~ one, two, or three (or more, if requested by the judge) nominees for each 11 magisterial office for the county for which the term of office of the magistrate holding that 12 position shall expire on December 31 of that year. Not later than the fourth Monday in 13 December, the ~~senior regular resident superior court judge~~ chief district court judge shall, from 14 the nominations submitted by the clerk of the superior court, appoint magistrates to fill the 15 positions for each county of the judge's district or set of districts. The chief district court judge 16 may reappoint an incumbent magistrate with six or more years of experience, regardless of 17 whether that magistrate is nominated by the clerk.

18 If the chief district court judge does not make the appointments required by this subsection 19 within 60 days of the submission of nominations by the clerk, the senior resident superior court 20 judge shall make the appointments under this subsection without regard to the nominations 21 made by the clerk."

22 SECTION 5. Section 4 of this act becomes effective only upon approval by the 23 voters of the constitutional amendment proposed in Section 1 of this act. If the constitutional 24 amendment proposed in Section 1 is approved by the voters, Section 4 of this act becomes 25 effective January 1, 2011, and applies to appointments that take effect on or after that date.
26 Section 5 of this act becomes effective July 1, 2009. The remainder of this act is effective when 27 it becomes law and applies to acts occurring on or after that date.
