5 INCORPORATION OF CHARACTER EDUCATION THROUGHOUT THE 6 CURRICULUM.

7 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

8 SECTION 1. G.S. 115C-81 reads as rewritten:

9 "§ 115C-81. Basic Education Program.

10 ...
11 (e1) School Health Education Program to Be Developed and Administered.

12 ...
13 (4) Each local school administrative unit shall provide a reproductive health and 14 safety education program commencing in the seventh grade that includes the 15 following instruction:

- 16 a. Teaches that abstinence from sexual activity outside of marriage is 17 the expected standard for all school-age children.
18 b. Presents techniques and strategies to deal with peer pressure and 19 offering positive reinforcement.
20 c. Presents reasons, skills, and strategies for remaining or becoming 21 abstinent from sexual activity.
22 d. Teaches that abstinence from sexual activity is the only certain 23 means of avoiding out-of-wedlock pregnancy, sexually transmitted 24 diseases when transmitted through sexual contact, including 25 HIV/AIDS, and other associated health and emotional problems.
26 e. Teaches that a mutually faithful monogamous heterosexual 27 relationship in the context of marriage is the best lifelong means of 28 avoiding sexually transmitted diseases, including HIV/AIDS.
29 f. Teaches the positive benefits of abstinence until marriage and the 30 risks of premarital sexual activity.
31 g. Provides opportunities that allow for interaction between the parent 32 or legal guardian and the student.
33 h. Provides factually accurate biological or pathological information 34 that is related to the human reproductive system.

35 Materials used in this instruction shall be age appropriate for use with 36 students. Information conveyed during the instruction shall be objective and

1 based upon scientific research that is peer reviewed and accepted by
 2 professionals and credentialed ~~experts in the field of sexual health~~
 3 ~~education experts.~~

4 (4a) Each local school administrative unit shall also include as part of the 5 instruction required under subdivision (4) of this subsection the following 6 instruction:

- 7 a. Teaches about sexually transmitted diseases. Instruction shall include 8 how sexually transmitted diseases are and are not transmitted, the 9 effectiveness and safety of all federal Food and Drug Administration
 10 (FDA)-approved methods of reducing the risk of contracting sexually 11 transmitted diseases, and information on local resources for testing 12 and medical care for sexually transmitted diseases. Instruction shall 13 include the rates of infection among pre-teen and teens of each
 14 known sexually transmitted disease and the effects of contracting 15 each sexually transmitted disease. In particular, the instruction shall 16 include information about the effects of contracting the Human 17 Papilloma Virus, including sterility and cervical cancer.
- 18 b. Teaches about the effectiveness and safety of all FDA-approved 19 contraceptive methods in preventing pregnancy.
- 20 c. Teaches awareness of sexual assault, sexual abuse, and risk 21 reduction. The instruction and materials shall:
- 22 1. Focus on healthy relationships.
 - 23 2. Teach students what constitutes sexual assault and sexual 24 abuse, the causes of those behaviors, and risk reduction.
 - 25 3. Inform students about resources and reporting procedures if 26 they experience sexual assault or sexual abuse.
 - 27 4. Examine common misconceptions and stereotypes about 28 sexual assault and sexual abuse.

29 Materials used in this instruction shall be age appropriate for use with 30 students. Information conveyed during the instruction shall be objective and 31 based upon scientific research that is peer reviewed and accepted by 32 professionals and credentialed ~~experts in the field of sexual health~~
 33 ~~education experts.~~ Each local board of education shall adopt a policy ~~and~~ 34 ~~provide a mechanism to allow to require that a student's parent or a guardian~~ 35 ~~to withdraw his or her child from~~ provide the student's school with written 36 permission before the student receives the instruction required under this 37 subdivision.

38 ...
 39 (7) Each school year, before students may participate in any portion of (i) a 40 program that pertains to or is intended to impart information or promote 41 discussion or understanding in regard to the prevention of sexually 42 transmitted diseases, including HIV/AIDS, or to the avoidance of 43 out-of-wedlock pregnancy, or (ii) a reproductive health and safety education
 44 program, whether developed by the State or by the local board of education, 45 the parents and legal guardians of those students shall be given an 46 opportunity to review the objectives and materials. ~~Local~~ Except as otherwise 47 provided in subdivision (4a) of this subsection, local boards of education 48 shall adopt policies to provide opportunities either for parents and legal 49 guardians to consent or for parents and legal guardians to withhold their 50 consent to the students' participation in any or all of these programs.

51 ...

1 (h) Character Education. – Each local board of education shall develop and implement 2 character education instruction with input from the local ~~community~~community, parents, and 3 school personnel. The instruction shall be incorporated into the standard curriculum and should 4 address the following traits:

- 5 (1) Courage. – Having the determination to do the right thing even when others 6 don't and the strength to follow your conscience rather than the crowd; and 7 attempting difficult things that are worthwhile.
- 8 (2) Good judgment. – Choosing worthy goals and setting proper priorities;
9 thinking through the consequences of your actions; and basing decisions on 10 practical wisdom and good sense.
- 11 (3) Integrity. – Having the inner strength to be truthful, trustworthy, and honest 12 in all things; acting justly and honorably.
- 13 (4) Kindness. – Being considerate, courteous, helpful, and understanding of 14 others; showing care, compassion, friendship, and generosity; and treating 15 others as you would like to be treated.
- 16 (5) Perseverance. – Being persistent in the pursuit of worthy objectives in spite 17 of difficulty, opposition, or discouragement; and exhibiting patience and 18 having the fortitude to try again when confronted with delays, mistakes, or 19 failures.
- 20 (6) Respect. – Showing high regard for authority, for other people, for self, for 21 property, and for country; and understanding that all people have value as 22 human beings.
- 23 (7) Responsibility. – Being dependable in carrying out obligations and duties;
24 showing reliability and consistency in words and conduct; being accountable 25 for your own actions; and being committed to active involvement in your 26 community.
- 27 (8) Self-Discipline. – Demonstrating hard work and commitment to purpose;
28 regulating yourself for improvement and restraining from inappropriate 29 behaviors; being in proper control of your words, actions, impulses, and 30 desires; choosing abstinence from premarital sex, drugs, alcohol, and other 31 harmful substances and behaviors; and doing your best in all situations.

32 (h1) In addition to the instruction under subsection (h) of this section, local boards of 33 education are encouraged to include instruction on the following responsibilities:

- 34 (1) Respect for school personnel. – In the school environment, respect includes 35 holding teachers, school administrators, and all school personnel in high 36 esteem and demonstrating in words and deeds that all school personnel 37 deserve to be treated with courtesy and proper deference.
- 38 (2) Responsibility for school safety. Helping to create a harmonious school 39 atmosphere that is free from threats, weapons, and violent or disruptive 40 behavior; cultivate an orderly learning environment in which students and 41 school personnel feel safe and secure; and encourage the resolution of 42 conflicts and disagreements through peaceful means including peer 43 mediation. Instruction in this responsibility should include a consistent and 44 age-appropriate antiviolence message and a conflict resolution component 45 for students in kindergarten through twelfth grade. These messages should 46 include media-awareness education to help children recognize stereotypes 47 and messages portraying violence.
- 48 (3) Service to others. – Engaging in meaningful service to their schools and their 49 communities. Schools may teach service-learning by (i) incorporating it into 50 their standard curriculum, or (ii) involving a classroom of students or some 51 other group of students in one or more hands-on community-service

1 projects. All schools are encouraged to provide opportunities for student 2 involvement in community service or service-learning projects.

- 3 (4) Good citizenship. – Obeying the laws of the nation and this State; abiding by 4 school rules; and understanding the rights and responsibilities of a member 5 of a republic.

6 (h2) The Basic Education Program curriculum and standard course of study, all 7 classroom assignments, assigned summer readings, and instructional materials shall comply 8 with, support, and consistently reflect the character education requirements under subsection
9 (h) of this section. The local board of education shall ensure that curriculum, classroom 10 assignments, summer readings, and instructional materials are evaluated annually for 11 compliance with this requirement. This subsection shall apply to all written materials, verbal 12 instruction, and visual depictions used to teach students.

14 SECTION 2. G.S. 115C-98 reads as rewritten:

15 "§ 115C-98. Local boards of education to provide for local operation of the textbook 16 program, the evaluation of instructional materials and input from the 17 community, the selection and procurement of other instructional materials, 18 and the use of nonadopted textbooks.

19 ...

20 (b1) A local board of education shall ensure that instructional materials are thoroughly 21 evaluated each school year to confirm that the materials reflect the requirement to incorporate 22 character education throughout the curriculum as provided in G.S. 115C-81. As part of the 23 development and evaluation of character education instruction, a local board shall provide for a 24 process for school personnel to submit proposed instructional materials for preliminary 25 approval by the local board.

26 A local board of education may establish a community media advisory committee to 27 investigate and evaluate challenges from parents, teachers, and members of the public to 28 textbooks and supplementary instructional materials on the grounds that they are educationally 29 unsuitable, pervasively vulgar, or inappropriate to the age, maturity, or grade level of the 30 students.

31 Each local board of education shall annually report to the State Board of Education on the 32 evaluation of instructional materials under this subsection. The State Board of Education shall 33 review its rules and policies concerning ~~these~~ challenges from parents, teachers, or members of 34 the public and the incorporation of character education in the curriculum and shall establish 35 evaluation guidelines to be followed by local boards, school personnel, and community media 36 advisory committees.

37 The local board, at all times, has sole authority and discretion to determine whether a 38 challenge has merit and whether challenged material should be retained or removed.

39"

40 SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies beginning with 41 the 2013-2014 school year.
