1 A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE MEMORY OF THE FOUNDERS OF THE 2 HIGH POINT FURNITURE MARKET ON THE OCCASION OF ITS ONE 3 HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY.

4 Whereas, on March 1, 1909, the first Southern Furniture Market opened in High 5 Point to showcase the products of High Point and North Carolina furniture manufacturers; and

6 Whereas, due to the quantity, quality, and design of North Carolina furniture 7 manufacturers, it was recognized that there was a need for a southern furniture market to 8 compete with existing markets in Chicago, New York, and other cities; and

9 Whereas, this first High Point Furniture Market was the culmination of efforts by 10 regional furniture producers and High Point civic leaders, including J.J. Farris, Charles F.
11 Long, and D. Ralph Parker; and

12 Whereas, the High Point Market has survived the Great Depression, two World
13 Wars, and flourishes today as the premiere international furniture market, and the largest 14 permanent trade show of its kind in the world; and

15 Whereas, the High Point Market is a unique North Carolina institution, with 180 16 buildings housing permanent showrooms comprising more than 12,000,000 square feet, with 17 approximately 13,000 jobs related to the Market; and

18 Whereas, the High Point Market attracts more than 170,000 attendees annually, 19 including many thousands of international visitors, with an economic impact of $1.2 billion to 20 the State; and

21 Whereas, the High Point Market is the center of the furniture industry cluster in the 22 State, comprised of manufacturers, retailers, showroom owners, furniture designers, interior 23 designers, photographers, and industry publications, with a combined economic impact of 24 $8.94 billion; and

25 Whereas, the High Point Market should be recognized for 100 years of providing a 26 world showcase for home furnishings and the State of North Carolina itself, and for continuing 27 to be the most significant economic impact event in the State; Now, therefore,

28 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

29 SECTION 1. The General Assembly honors the memory of the founders of the 30 High Point Market, including J.J. Farris, Charles F. Long, and D. Ralph Parker, as well as the 31 many men and women who have contributed to the growth and strength of this Market over its 32 100-year history.

33 SECTION 2. The General Assembly commends the High Point Market on its 100th
34 Anniversary, expresses its commitment to maintain and enhance the High Point Market's 35 worldwide premiere status in the furniture industry, and acknowledges the contributions of the 36 High Point Market over its long history.

1                   SECTION 3. The Secretary of State shall transmit a certified copy of this 2 resolution to the High Point Market Authority.

3                   SECTION 4. This resolution is effective upon ratification.
