HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION DRHJR70041-LG-37 (02/01)

Sponsors: Representatives Gill, Michaux, L. Hall, and Horn (Primary Sponsors).

Referred to:

1 A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING NORTH CAROLINA'S AFRICAN-AMERICAN 2 REVOLUTIONARY WAR PATRIOTS AND SUPPORTING THE PROPOSED 3 NATIONAL LIBERTY MEMORIAL.

4 Whereas, from 1775 to 1783, an estimated 5,000 to 10,000 slaves and free persons 5 served as soldiers, marines, and patriots or provided civilian assistance during the 6 Revolutionary War; and

7 Whereas, more than 250 African-Americans from 41 of 100 counties in North 8 Carolina and 11 of the State's 13 Congressional Districts served in the Revolutionary War; and

9 Whereas, John Ellis and Drury Tann were two of the African-Americans from North 10 Carolina that participated in our nation's struggle for independence from Great Britain; and

11 Whereas, on April 27, 1776, John Ellis enlisted as a private in the 10th Regiment in 12 the North Carolina Continental Line and, during his two and one-half year enlistment, spent a 13 year guarding the North Carolina legislature while it met in the Town of Hillsborough; and

14 Whereas, on August 1, 1782, Drury Tann, who was born a free person of color,
15 enlisted as a private in Captain Hadley's Company of the 10th Regiment of the North Carolina 16 Continental Line and served for about 18 months; and

17 Whereas, in 1984, Congress enacted Public Law 98-245 honoring the contributions 18 of African-Americans who served during the American Revolution; and

19 Whereas, in 1986, Congress authorized the Black Revolutionary War Patriots 20 Memorial Foundation to establish the Black Revolutionary War Patriots Memorial to honor the 21 5,000 courageous slaves and free Black persons who served as soldiers or provided civilian 22 assistance during the American Revolution; and

23 Whereas, in 1987, Congress enacted Public Law 100-265, authorizing the placement 24 of the memorial in the monumental core area of Washington, D.C.; and

25 Whereas, in 1988, the National Park Service, the Commission of Fine Arts, and the 26 National Capital Planning Commission approved a site in Constitution Gardens for the Black 27 Revolutionary War Patriots Memorial and, in 1996, approved the final design; however, the 28 memorial was not constructed and the authority to do so lapsed; and

29 Whereas, over the years, members of Congress have continued to introduce 30 legislation supporting the memorial, former Senator Elizabeth Dole cosponsored a bill in 2007; 31 and

32 Whereas, in 2012, the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2013 was 33 signed into law with an amendment authorizing the National Mall Liberty Fund DC to build a 34 memorial honoring the African-American Revolutionary War participants; and

35 Whereas, the efforts to build the memorial have generated interest in genealogical 36 research resulting in the publication of hundreds of books over more than two decades

1 reaffirming the significant contributions made by African-Americans in the postcolonial period;
2 and

3 Whereas, the 2008 publication entitled "Forgotten Patriots, African-American and 4 American Indian Patriots in the Revolutionary War" contained the most extensive list published 5 so far of African-Americans in the Revolutionary War; Now, therefore,

6 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:
